HIRAM JOHNSON TO SPEAK AT THE SEQUOIA THEATRE

The People's Champion Will be Heard This Afternoon at 1:30 Defying His Opponents

Senator Hiram W. Johnson will speak at the Sequoia Theater this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, coming from San Mateo, where he will deliver an address at 12:30. This will be a rare opportunity for the people of this community to hear the senator on the issues of the present campaign. He will answer his critics with his old time vigor and eloquently drive home some truths that the voters like to hear. Every voter is urged to come and listen to the message the senator has to deliver to the people of the peninsula. The theater should be packed on this occasion, for not every community has been accorded the privilege of hearing this great statesman and orator. Come early and secure a front seat. George A. Merrill will preside and the following citizens will act as vice presidents: Judge Edw. F. Fitzpatrick, John MacBain, Eric Thompson, Mrs. Mona Christensen, W. J. Pillars, D. E. O'Keefe, Elizabeth M. Nash, A. S. Liguori, Charles McCracken, B. C. Zimmerman, Henry A. Beeger, E. H. Sampson.

A final word. The voters of San Mateo county are urged to cast their ballots on Tuesday next for Hiram W. Johnson, the people's champion. Make San Mateo county the banner Johnson county of the state. It has always been, keep it so by your vote on August 29. The vote for Mr. Johnson should be overwhelming. He is a tried and true representative of our state. He is now a candidate for re-election to represent the people in Washington. It is generally admitted by his opponents that Hiram Johnson is a man of force of character and possessing unusual ability. Vote for him.

FORESTERS PREPARE FOR BIG TIME

With a number of visiting members and officials in San Francisco and the bay counties and the end of the summer season drawing to a close, entertainments, picnics and formal visits by the officials from the east fill largely the time of the various courts of the Foresters of America located in the bay region.

The joint committee representing the courts of San Jose, Santa Clara, Palo Alto, Mountain View, Redwood City, Saratoga and Hollister will meet tonight in Santa Clara to discuss the program of entertainment in honor of the visit of Supreme Chief Ranger George P. Sullivan to the local courts during the first week in October.

The local members of the committee who are helping in the arrangements and who went to San Jose last Sunday and will go to Santa Clara this evening are William Lutje, Mike Chaves and E. Lodi.

Court Madroae will have twelve candidates to journey into the forest and learn the ways of Forestry at the big meeting which will welcome the supreme chief ranger when he comes to San Jose in October.

AN APPEAL TO THE VOTERS OF SAN MATEO COUNTY

As this is the last issue of this paper before the primary election, Tuesday, August 29, we feel that Frank Roach should be elected sheriff of San Mateo county. His qualifications certainly fit him for that important office. His sterling honesty and unquestioned ability, his fearlessness and general reputation have endeared him to his friends and acquaintances throughout the county.

Give Frank Roach your support on election day and in return Mr. Roach guarantees a most efficient service in the conduct of that office. We predict that Frank Roach will be elected Sheriff Tuesday by a huge majority. Friends of this paper, we ask your support of Mr. Roach on election day.

CAN WRITE IN NAME

Congressman A. M. Free of this district, who is seeking the nomination at the primaries, requests his friends in the Democratic party to write his name on the ballots to help him in his race for re-election.

This is something which might be overlooked, as all the voters do not know that it is permissible to write the name of a candidate on the ballot.

SAN FRANCISCO WEDDING

The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon in Marin county and will reside in Mill Valley.

SUMMARY OF THE CAMPAIGN WHICH WILL CLOSE TUESDAY

Not a Great Deal of Opposition, But What Contests There Are Have Been Lively

Tuesday, August 29, will have gone into history before another issue of this paper shall have been printed. We have tried to tell the people what we think of the various candidates and our position has been open and above board at every stage of the game. One thing we would like to impress on our readers, and that is, they should show their appreciation of faithful service and vote for each of the county officials who have no opposition. They are each one of them worthy of your suffrage. It will not take very long for the average voter to stamp an "X" after each one of these candidates. The people of the county are prone to ask favors of these officials and they should reciprocate by giving them a fine complimentary vote. It isn't necessary that they should have a large number of votes tallied for them, but it does give anyone a sense of satisfaction to know that the people approve of them and are willing to vote for them.

Now that the above is off our system we would venture to remark that Governor William D. Stephens will be elected by a tremendous majority. Vote for him, he is worthy of all support.

Next in line comes Hiram Johnson. He will also be elected, as his past perfomances merit his retention by the people of the state of California.

C. C. Young should be re-elected. He has made good.

For state treasurer Charles G. Johnson will poll a big vote, but J. T. Millan has many friends here who are working for him and he will come in strong.

For surveyor general the incumbent, W. S. Kingsbury, will get a large vote and his opponent, Curtis B. Locklin, will have a big vote in this county, for he was for a time a deputy county surveyor under the late W. B. Gilbert. While a resident here Mr. Locklin made many friends who will work for him. He is an attorney as well as a surveyor and is well equipped for a position such as he seeks. He was a captain in the engineers, U. S. A., during the late unpleasantness and will get much support from ex-service men.

We do not know much about either of the gentlemen who are seeking the position as a member of the state board of equalization, so we will make no suggestion as to which should get the place.

Every Republican should vote for Arthur Free. He has represented his district faithfully and well.

Frank Eksward should receive the support of his constituents. He has been in the legislature long enough to understand the methods there and he can be depended upon to stand up for the interests of San Mateo county at every stage of the game.

We are for Curtis D. Wilbur for chief justice of the supreme court. Judge Lawlor is a good man and would do well on the supreme bench, but we believe the promotion is due Judge Wilbur. He has been tried and is all that a just judge should be. Judge Shurtleff is our big choice for associate justice. We know Judge Shurtleff, he is one of our own people. He makes his home at Menlo Park and every neighbor swears by him. We like a man who is regarded so highly by his neighbors. Besides that, Judge Shurtleff is well versed in the law and is one of the most highly respected jurists who has ever served in the state supreme court. We are also for Frank H. Kerrigan. Judge Kerrigan has done well on the appellate bench and is deserving of promotion.

We are strong for P. P. Chamberlain. Mr. Chamberlain should be given the largest vote of his experience. He is deserving of such a demonstration because of his long and faithful service. For sheriff we believe that Frank Roach and Heber W. Lampkin will both go to the finals. The sheriff fight is a three-cornered aair and it will be hard for any one of the contestants to get a clear majority. We look to see Mr. Hirschey low man.

As to the county positions, there are no opponents, but as we said in the beginning, we hope that the voters will vote for each one of them.

In the township fight we do not like to hazard an opinion. Ray Griffin will be re-elected justice of the peace, as he has no opposition. Martin Walsh is having a stiff fight with Pete Larrecou and Joe Feliz as his opponents. They are three good men and each has a strong following. The incumbent always has an advantage over his opponents and as Martin Walsh has tried at all times to conduct his office as it should be conducted he will have an advantage because of that fact.

Mr. and Mrs. Voter, be sure to vote early, but not too often.

CITY TRUSTEES HEAR COMPLAINT AGAINST GEESE AND TURKEYS

Resident Makes Kick to Stop Cackling. Permits Telephone Co. to Lay Conduits in Streets

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company was granted permission by the city trustees Monday night to make excavations to place the company's conduits for its underground wire system. Streets on which excavations will be made are Warren between Bradford and Winslow, East Marshall between Winslow and Webster, Webster between East Marshall and Broadway, Broadway between Webster and Washington, Washington between Broadway and Webster, Webster between Washington and Main at Phelps.

William Crowe, a Frank tannery employe, a short time ago purchased a lot on Oliver street and put up a house. According to his story to the trustees Monday night a San Francisco man purchased the property next door and proceeded to raise turkeys, geese and trouble. Crowe told the city fathers he had no objection to his neighbors raising the aforesaid poultry, but he did object to having his slumber disturbed at all hours of the night by the cackling of the geese and he didn't appreciate the said neighbor's turkeys coming into his garden and making their daily meals off his vegetables.

W. A. Crowell, manager of the James Crowe Undertaking Company, appeared before the trustees and protested against the proposed closing of Webster street between Broadway and the Webster street bridge during school hours.

F. L. Baird and seven other property owners and residents on Davis street, between Roosevelt and Oak avenues, petitioned the trustees to take steps to improve that portion of the thoroughfare by macadamizing. The matter was ordered referred to City Engineer C. L. Dimmitt to keep in mind in connection with other improvement work now being planned for that section of the city.

J. C. Dickey, superintendent of the Pulgas Mosquito Abatement district, addressed a letter to the board stating that there was a leak in the city sewer on the north end of Chestnut street and that if not corrected it would cause a breeding place for mosquitoes.

A communication from C. H. Gerwin protesting against the proposed plan of improving Roosevelt avenue for the full width was received.

TAXI OWNER PASSES ON IN SAN FRANCISCO

George Robert Felton, familiarly known as Bob to all his friends, owner and operator of the Felton Taxi Company of this city, passed away in San Francisco Thursday. Mr. Felton had been ailing for the past two months and about a month ago went to the home of his brother, Mark, in San Francisco to take treatment for a serious stomach trouble. For a while it was thought that he was improving, but two weeks ago a turn for the worse occurred and his death resulted Thursday. Mr. Felton was a fine, cheerful man, although an injury to his back which happened many years ago gave him great pain at times. He came to Redwood City ten years ago and made his home on Grant avenue.

In 1913 Mr. Felton started his taxicab business and since then he has been a familiar figure about the streets of the city. His office was maintained just across the street from the Times-Gazette office. He was married, but had no children. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made, but it is understood that the funeral will be held at his late home here.

Mrs. Felton has the sympathy of her many friends in her bereavement.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL

During the vacation the Central grammar school has been equipped with standard electric clocks in each recitation room. The clocks have been connected with the big central clock in the office. DUMBARTON BRIDGE SITE FIXED BY THE STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION

To Be Mile and a Half North of Dumbarton Point and New Highway Will Be Built Later

Figures on the estimated cost of a highway and bridge across lower San Francisco bay connecting San Mateo and San Francisco counties and furnishing an outlet from San Francisco to east bay cities, have been forwarded from Sacramento to directors of District No. 4 at San Francisco, is stated by Secretary Roy Murray of the state highway commission.

The survey was made after a conference between representatives of the two counties and the commission, at which it was agreed the state engineers should use state funds in determining the feasibility of the cutoff.

The commission recommends that the bridge be built a mile and a half north of Dumbarton Point, as this is the narrowest place to cross the bay and the cost will be less than at any other point.

The cost of the highway and the bridge to be built in San Mateo county will be about three million dollars.

A new highway is estimated in the plans and San Francisco is to have a new outlet, also the plans call for widening the old pavement to 100 feet, the entire cost in San Francisco and this county to be near $7,000,000. Alvarado will be the eastern terminus of the bridge. The plan was approved by the district highway board, which will endeavor to have a 5-cent tax levy on this year's taxes to start the work.

P. P. Chamberlain not only has the longest name in the great register of San Mateo county, but he has the honor of having the longest term of service of any county official in the state. The people of San Mateo county have been content year after year to trust their public funds in his hands and he has ever been faithful to that trust. He has not only been accurate and trustworthy but he has been one of the men most anxious to further any movement for the advancement of San Mateo county.

Mr. Chamberlain came to San Mateo county as a boy in 1867, shortly after he finished his service in the Union army during the great Civil War. He soon went into business and has watched this section grow from a sparsely settled suburban county to one of the most highly improved sections of the United States. He has done his part in every campaign and has always been willing to help a friend or neighbor at any time. There has never been a more consistent Republican in San Mateo county than P. P. Chamberlain and there has never been a better citizen.

The people should give him as nearly a unanimous election as possible.

CLERK'S OFFICE BUSY

County Clerk Elizabeth M. Nash has had her office force working at top speed for the past few weeks mailing out the sample ballots to the 15,873 registered voters of San Mateo county. It was no small job and Mrs. Nash is to be congratulated on the thoroughness with which she has executed this part of her official duties. The sample ballots are of varied hue. The Republican ballot, which made up the bulk of those sent throughout the county, was printed on yellow paper, others were orange, green, pink, salmon and other shades almost too numerous to mention. At any rate they have been sent to the electors of the county and Mrs. Nash will have a breathing space of a day before she has to start on the work of distributing election supplies. The best part of the whole thing is the cheerful spirit with which the county clerk carries on her official duties.

FRANK L. EKSWARD

Throughout the campaign the Times-Gazette has urged its readers to support and vote for Hon Frank L. Eksward for assemblyman. Anything further we would say here would be mere repetition of what has already been said. Mr. Eksward should be returned to the assembly and every thoughtful citizen who is anxious for the welfare of this county should vote for him. He understands our needs and is in a position to give us assistance. A vote for him will be but a slight recompense for the many things he has done for the citizens of this section.

Vote for Frank L. Eksward.

For United States Senator

For Governor of California

CHARLES A. SHURTLEFF
FRANK H. KERRIGAN
For Associate Justice Supreme Court

FRANK L. EKSWARD
Assemblyman, 42d District

FOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON

Here are a few of the many reasons why Hiram W. Johnson should be returned to the United States Senate says Former Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court, Matt I. Sullivan.

He wrested the control of the government of the state of California from the Southern Pacific company and placed it in the hands of the people.

As governor of our state he was responsible for the constructive, progressive and humane legislation which has made California the best governed and most prosperous state in the union.

His undiluted Americanism which makes him more solicitous of the welfare of the United States than he is of the welfare of Great Britain and other foreign nations, peculiarly qualifies him as our national representative.

He has fought and will continue to fight, while representing California in the United States Senate, to uphold the principles of the founders of our republic, by opposing entangling alliance between the United States and foreign nations.

With the courage of his convictions and in the face of apparent popular disapproval of his conduct he opposed the four lower pact. When he opposed the pact, which is now unfortunately, a dead issue he saw the menace to our republic and the peace of the worl, of a treaty designed to give control of the Pacific to four nations of the earth to the exclusion of all others. He also saw, as apparently no other did that the pact would render it extremely difficult, if not impossible, to stem the current of Japanese immigration to the United States. He knew that with that treaty in force the United States would be slow to give offense to Japan by insisting on the exclusion of Japanese immigration from our shores.

He, more than any other representative in Congress, is responsible for the protection given by the pending tariff bill to the diversified products of California.

SHOULD ELECT KERRIGAN

Judge Frank H. Kerrigan, associate justice of the district court of appeal, is receiving the support of newspaper editors throughout the state in his campaign for one of the two long term places now expiring on the supreme bench.

Judge Kerrigan has long been considered an authority on newspaper laws and his decisions have been eminently fair to the newspapers. He wrote the opinion in which the California Press Association opposed the application of a certain newspaper for a decree designating it as a newspaper of general circulation. The case has a vital influence on the newspaper industry of the state, in that the recognition of the kind applied for would have meant that many newspapers without a bona fide circulation or that were not entitled to the term "newspaper" would have been able to procure much legal advertising, for which the public would not have received proper returns.

The decision of Juge Kerrigan was looked upon with much favor by the members of the California Press Association and to the newspaper fraternity generally. It was deemed an important protection of the principle of newspaper publication.

Widespread interest is being manifested by the voters of California in Judge Kerrigan's candidacy for the exalted position on the supreme bench. Judge Kerrigan has been on the bench for 28 years, and for the past sixteen years has served as associate justice of the district court of appeal.

JOHNSON AIDS SOLDIERS

In his campaign speeches Charles C. Moore epitomizes in a very few words the difference between his philosophy of life and that of Hiram W. Johnson.

"Let us," he says from the platform condemning Johnson's stand on international issues, "Let us cut out all the humanitarian stuff and determine the peace of the world upon the loss of business and upon business propositions."

It is quite natural for Mr. Moore to think in terms of dollars and cents even when the fate of the universe is at stake. Mr. Moore is a business man through and through. He takes pride in proclaiming himself as such in all his campaign publicity and literature. He is strictly business when dollars, rather than human life, are involved. Mr. Moore says he wants world peace on a buisness basis. "Let's cut out the humanitarian stuff," he says.

Hiram Johnson, however, believes in "humanitarian stuff" in the issue of world peace and every other issue affecting the welfare of this nation and he won't "cut it out" as Mr. Moore suggests. In his own words, just as we quoted Mr. Moore, here is Hiram Johnson's viewpoint:

"I recognize, of course, the economic waste in war and the awful destruction of the world's resources, the importance of this waste and destruction I would not minimize, but I am for peace first because I do not want men torn asunder, wounded, broken, crippled and killed. The inability to make money during war, the loss of business, make their strongest appeal to my opponent. The appeal to me is first from the human side.

"Just as my opponent during the six glorious years of the regeneration of this commonwealth was ever against every act designed to aid men and women and children, just so now, in the discussion of peace, unconsciously he falls into the same mental attitude and would eliminate what he is pleased to designate 'all the humanitarian stuff'."

There is the diffeernce in the philosophy of the two men. The voters of California, thanks to the direct primary, may choose as between Mr. Moore and his idea of good business and Hiram Johnson and his stand, not only as evidenced by his accomplishment as the best business governor of California, but ris present insistence on the same humanitarian ideals that he has ever fought for.

STEPHENS AS GOVERNOR

The government of a state exercises great influence upon its prosperity and when a state is highly prosperous the government is entitled to due credit for promoting it.

The governor is by far the most important state official. To him, more than to any other public agency, is due the credit for whatever the government can do to promote the prosperity of the people.

The results of the industry of the people of California, of their agriculture, horticulture, manufacturing, mining, lumbering, shipping and all other human activities are summed up and set forth in the status of its banks.

Governor Stephens has served during the war and its aftermath and this is the situation in which we find ourselves after the most trying period in human history:

During that period the resources of the state banking system have been increased by the astounding sum of $728,716,000.

That is an increase of nearly 80 per cent upon the resources of that banking system when Governor Stephens took office.

Let it be remembered that these figures apply only to the state banks. When the growth of national banks is added to this the progress of California's prosperity becomes stupendous.

Very little of that increase belongs to the banks themselves. Nearly all of that increase belongs to the depositors, who own all the possessions of the banks except the capital and surplus. And in the state system the greater part of the increase is in the savings of the thrifty, deposited in savings banks.

The banking gains are hardly more than an index number of the general prosperity. By far the greater part of this gain is in the wider vate dareas, more and better houses, factories and business blocks; an immense increase of bond holdings, more widely distributed than ever before; in the means for better living and happier lives; in less unemployment and better wages.

In so far as government and a governor can promote general prosperity by wise laws and efficient administration, Governor Stephens has made a useful contribution.

Why change, therefore, when Governor Stephens is not even under criticism?

There is no reason and the people will not change.

JOHNSON FOR AMERICA

It may be only a coincidence that Charles C. Moore is the honorary treasurer of the "English Speaking Union," of which Sir Arthur J. Balfour, Knight of the Garter, is president, and that at the same time in his campaign speeches for the Republican nomination for United States senator he is spreading British propaganda. England wants this country to cancel her war debts. She seeks through various forms of propaganda to create sympathy for herself in this country. Speaking at the City Club in Los Angeles, Moore, discussing international issues and expressing a wish to bring about world peace by lending a more generous helping hand to Europe, said:

Coming from the Right Honorable Arthur Balfour, president of the "English Speaking Union," that would not sound entirely out of place, but coming from Charles C. Moore, American honorary treasurer of the union, it doesn't sound just right. As a matter of fact, it sounds all wrong to Senator Hiram W. Johnson and the senator says so in the following statement issued from his headquarters:

"While at the City Club in Los Angeles the 'vicarious candidate' said: 'While England packs the load, we stand around.' Here again this is but another instance of our difference of viewpoint. He talks in muddy phrases about peace. Apparently he and his associates imagine they have a monopoly of the desire for peace. But he ever couples his desire for peace with the cry, to which none will dissent, for prosperity. When he says, and I have quoted him verbatim, that 'While England pack sthe load, we stand around,' I deny either the truth or justice of his statement.

"What does he mean? There can be but one implication—that our country has been faithless to its duty and forgetful of its obligations. I deny it. The debt that we are now bearing unpaid either in principal or interest by England answers the candidate on the other side, and more eloquently, the broken bodies of our young men and the graves on the fields of France cry out against him. 'England packs the load' while we stand around.

"Eleven billions of dollars upon the backs of overburdened taxpayers of this country, two million men ferried across 3,000 miles of hostile sea, the blood and bone of America's finest manhood, their dauntless courage upon the battlefield, their heroism and their sacrifices, their wounds and their deaths answer the base charge which no American ought ever to utter and no American can justly utter, that 'While England packs the load we stand around.' Oh, cannot these gentlemen on the other side think of our republic? Must their viewpoint always be Great Britain's? In the long, gruelling fight of the last few years we have had but a single thought, not one of hate or hostility to any of those who were our associates of war, none concerning those upon the other side of this contest have forgotten—our country, its preservation and its destiny in the days to come as the aid and the leader of humanity and civilization."

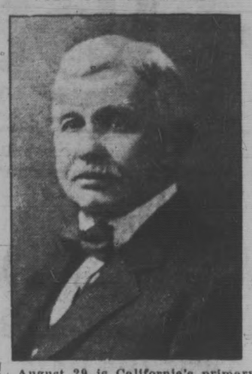
FOR THE VETERANS

Strong endorsement of Governor Stephens and his efforts for rehabilitation of California's veterans was given recently in a statement issued at Oakland by Milton C. Lutz, chaplain of the Disabled Veterans of the World War. Speaking of the rehabilitation programs in the nation at large, Lutz said:

"The broken promises and forgotten pledges mark one of the sad chapters in our history which might well be blotted out."

Referring specifically to the veteran situation in California, he continued: "But in this change of sentiment throughout the country Governor Stephens remains unchanged. He remained true to every promise, every pledge, and stands today as earnest a champion of the soldier cause as he did when he encouraged them on to victory. He not merely evinced his interest in the soldiers by delivering high sounding orations in their behalf, but stood in support and in defense of sound legtion for their benefit. The veterans' home purchase bill is an outstanding piece of legislation in that it provides for the soldier without adding to the burden of the taxpayer. Governor Stephens is directly responsible for this measure and for this reason alone he should have the unqualified support of veterans all over the state."

VOTE FOR SHURTLEFF



August 29 is California's primary election date.

On Tuesday of next week the voters of the state will express their preference for partisan candidates and for those whose offices are with out the range of party affiliation.

For some of the national and state offices there is a wide choice among aspirants. In the matter of the judicial contests the names of candidates will appear on all ballots.

From the first this paper has taken pride in urging its readers to vote for Judge Charles A. Shurtleff for Associate Justice of the supreme court of California. It urges them anew today, reminding them again that San Mateo has the distinction of being the home county of Judge Shurtleff and should lead the way in the matter of giving him a unanimous vote.

Judge Shurtleff is at present serving as associate justice of the supreme court. He was appointed to the position a little over a year ago. His selection, from all of the available material in California was made without solicitation on his part. His merit was his credential for selection.

During his twelve months on the supreme bench he has justified the wisdom of his choice. He has given to his judicial work the same careful, painstaking, conscientious effort which marked him in private practice, which made him one of the outstanding and distinguished members of the legal profession in California.

There is no better man in the state for the position of associate justice of the supreme court of California than Charles A. Shurtleff. He has the enthusiastic support and the active effort of men and women in all walks of life.

Organized labor, quick to recognize justice and fairmindedness in public servants, has given him unqualified approval. Business and professional activities are a unit in demanding his return to his present position.

University men and women who have known him in his work, have added their endorsement. There is no opposition to Judge Shurtleff. His has been the type of service that is constructive, humane, just.

The voters of California can count it a rare opportunity to cast their votes for such a candidate as Judge Shurtleff.

San Mateo county can have the added satisfaction of knowing that in voting for their fellow citizen for the high post of associate justice, they are helping to retain for the state one of the very finest officials California has ever had in her service.

The best interests of California demand the retention of Judge Charles A. Shurtleff on the supreme bench.

A vote for him in the primary election is a civic duty which should not be forgotten or passed over.

There can be no mistake in marking your ballot for Charles A. Shurtleff for associate justice of the supreme court, long term.

Friends and supporters of Governor Stephens gathered at Galt recently and organized a Stephens for governor campaign club which will begin active work at once. Fifty-one members were enrolled at the initial meeting.

Fred Harvey was elected president and M. A. Sparks was choesn secretary. Harvey declared that Galt would be "100 per cent for Stephens at the primary."

—o—o—o—

In the United States Senate Hiram Johnson has succesfully defended American traditions and successfully protected California products and for those two reasons many men and women have not supported him in the past are going to vote for him this time. It looks as though Johnson's majority this election will be a record breaker.

RENOMINATE STEPHENS

William D. Stephens will be renominated for the office of Governor of California next Tuesday by a record breaking majority because he has measured up to the stature of a man in every worthy issue presented him since his original appointment to that office by Hiram W. Johnson, and his subsequent election four years ago.

The governor has stirred up enemies, few but very vociferous; and for the man on the street, those enemies are a credit to him.

In his selection of men to administer the program of progressive legislation, carried on so worthily under his administration, Governor Stephens has ignored every consideration except the training and fitness of the prospective appointee for the office to be filled. His appointment to the supreme bench, the appellate bench and the superior courts have reflected lustre on the offices they filled and credit to the executive who named them.

To the various state commissions—always the targets for the high priests of reaction in California—he has brought men in sympathy with the aims of the electorate that brought these commissions into being, men of probity, men of ability.

During his tenure of office, Governor Stephens has taken the leadership in California's efforts to see that the Golden State's full debt to her hero sons of the late war is paid in full. The various compensation acts, the bonus and rehabilitation programs have received his fullest support.

From the Oregon line to Mexico, Governor Stephens has won the affection and the confidence of the people of California. He has carried on the progressive program in this commonwealth. He has done his part to make California a more desirable place in which to live. The people will answer his detractors at the primaries Tuesday.

Samuel C. Evans, mayor of Riverside and some years ago a member of the state senate, well known to thousands of people in the southern section of the state, is an enthusiastic supporter of Governor William D. Stephens and declares the present state executive will carry every one of the counties in southern California by an unprecedented majority.

A communication received recently from Mayor Evans says that Riverside county will "go over the top" in good shape for the governor and that the farmers and fruit growers of the county are solidly behind the policies of the present administration.

California farmers are more interested in getting proper protection for the products of their labor than they are in foreign propoganda about world leagues, therefore they will vote to keep Hiram Johnson on the job in the United States Senate.

P. H. McCARTHY FOR JOHNSON

I am supporting Hiram W. Johnson, not because he is Hiram W. Johnson, one of the biggest men in the United States, one of the ablest and most far-seeing statesmen we have in our country, but because of the great humanitarian work done by Hiram W. Johnson.

No man of whom I have knowledge has ever accomplished anything like the large number of legislative enactments benefiting the plain people of California as Hiram W. Johnson.

The child labor law, the compulsory appliances for the prevention of accidents, the destitute mothers' pension, the establishment of the bureau of labor statistics, the inspection and regulation of factories, the women's eight hour law, the improvement of sanitation and housing in labor camps, the establishment of free employment bureaus, the prohibition of untruthful advertising in time of strikes, the alien land law, the minimum mwage for women in industry are some of the many achievements in behalf of the working people accomplished by Hiram W. Johnson.

One reason, in itself all powerful when considered by the loyal American citizen, is that every Asiatic lover, every lover of every other country than the United States, and everyone who cares little or nothing for the plain people of California or the United States generally, are opposed to Johnson.

These are but a few of the many reasons why I, and hundreds of thousands of other citizens in this state, are for Hiram W. Johnson for United States senator.

Hiram Johnson is a great man. He has brains and he is brave. He has great determination and generally gets what he goes after. Most of the people are proud to be represented in the United States senate by a man of such power.

—o—o—o—

Hiram Johnson bucks the line hard. When he is in a fight he fights hard, but the best thing about his battling is that he fights for what is right and he always wins.

—o—o—o—

Johnson is for California and when the votes are counted next Tuesday and the result is flashed over the wires the east will know that California is for Johnson.

—o—o—o—

Progressive California is for progressive Hiram Johnson, just as it has been for him in the past and just as it was for Roosevelt.

HUBBY WON'T WORK

That her husband has worked only three days since their marriage on June 7, slaps her face and pulls her hair and otherwise conducts a systematic course of cruel and inhuman treatment, is the allegation of Fanny Jeannette West in a complaint for divorce filed on Tuesday against Jack West, swimming instructor and life guard.

(2) Business Field

The Company occupies a business field of almost limitless possibilities. California is one of the wealthiest and most rapidly growing states in the country. Its population in 1920 of 3,426,861 represented an increase of 1,049,312, or 44%, in the last census period. The Company serves over one-half of this population, its lines extending into thirty-six counties of Northern and Central California, having an area of 54,000 square miles.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company, which does approximately 40% of the gas and electric business of the entire State, and upwards of two-thirds of that of Northern and Central California, will be one of the leading factors in the era of unprecedented growth and development upon which we believe this section of the State is now entering.

The Company's business has increased with uniformly greater rapidity than has the population of the territory served, and the increasing utilization of gas and electricity for domestic, manufacturing and commercial purposes indicates that this condition will continue.

It is desirable that you make your purchase now as the trend of the investment market is unmistakably upward.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

Notice is hereby given to the electors of the State of California that the following Bond Act will be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election to be holden on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1922.

Frank C. Jordan, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 733, STATUTES OF 1921

An act to authorize the creation of a debt or debts, liability or liabilities, throught the issuance and sale of state bonds, for the single object of creating a fund to carry out the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto; to provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest of such debt or debts, liability or liabilities, as such interest falls due, and also for the payment and discharge of the principal of such debt or debts, liability or liabilities, as such principal matures; to create a state land settlement finance committee, the members of which are to serve without compensation; to define the powers and duties of said state land settlement finance committee and of other state officers in relation to this act; to appropriate money for the expense of preparing and of advertising the sale of the bonds herein authorized to be issued; and to provide for the submission of this act to a vote of the people at the general election to be holden in the month of November, 1922.

(Approved June 3, 1921.)

Section 1. For the purpose of creating a fund to carry out the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, the object of which acts is to provide employment and rural homes for soldiers, sailors, marines and others who have served with the armed forces of the United States in the European war or other wars of the United States, including former American citizens who served in allied armies against the central powers and have been repatriated, and who have been honorably discharged, to promote closer agricultural settlement, to assist deserving and qualified persons to acquire small improved farms, to demonstrate the value of adequate capital and organized direction in subdividing and preparing agricultural land for settlement, and to provide homes for farm laborers, in accordance with the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto; provided, that the said land settlement board shall pay over to the general fund of the state from the proceeds of the sale of bonds all money which has been heretofore or may be hereafter appropriated and advanced out of the general fund of the state treasury for the use of the state land settlement board on condition that it shall be so paid over; provided, further, that the said state land settlement board may, out of the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, pay all or any part of any indebtedness heretofore by it incurred in accordance with law and remaining unpaid, including the interest accrued thereon, unless the rate of interest applying to such indebtedness is less than the rate of interest applying to the said bonds; and provided, further, that the proceeds from the sale of said bonds may be used to pay the debt created by the issuance and sale thereof.

Sec. 9. The state land settlement board shall be and hereby is authorized with the approval of the state board of control, to invest any surplus moneys in any of the funds subject to or appropriated for its use in bonds of the United States, or of the State of California, or of the several counties or municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State of California and to sell such bonds, or any of them, at the governing market rates, upon approval of the state board of control.

Sec. 10. There is hereby created a state land settlement finance committee composed of the governor, state controller, state treasurer, chairman of the state board of control, and chairman of the state land settlement board, all of whom shall serve thereon without compensation and a majority of whom shall be empowered to act as said committee. The attorney-general of the state shall be the legal advisor of the state land settlement finance committee.

Upon request of the state land settlement board, supported by a statement of the plans and projects of the state land settlement board with respect thereto, the state land settlement finance committee shall determine whether or not a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution.

Sec. 11. Whenever the said state land settlement finance committee shall have determined that a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution, it shall adopt a resolution to this effect. The said resolution shall authorize and direct the state treasurer to prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds and shall specify:

1. The aggregate number, aggregate par value, and the date of issuance of the bonds to be issued.

2. The date or dates of maturity of the bonds to be issued and the number and numerical sequence of the bonds maturing at each date of maturity.

3. The annual rate of interest which the bonds to be issued shall bear.

4. The number, numerical sequence, amount or amounts, and the dates of maturity of the interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds.

5. The technical form and language of the bonds to be issued and of the interest coupons to be attached thereto.

In determining the date or dates of maturity of the said bonds and the amount of bonds maturing at each date of maturity, the state land settlement finance committee shall be guided by the amounts and dates of maturity of the revenues estimated to accrue to the state land settlement board from the project or projects to be financed by each issue, and shall fix and determine said dates and amounts in such manner that, together with the dates and amounts of interest payments on the said bond issue, they shall coincide, as nearly as practicable, and be commensurate, as nearly as practicable, with the dates and amounts of such estimated revenues; provided, that the bonds first to mature in each issue, shall mature not later than five years from the date of issuance thereof; provided, further, that specific numbers of bonds of specified numerical sequence shall thereafter mature at annual intervals; and provided, further, that the bonds last to mature in each issue shall mature not later than forty-five years from the date of issuance thereof.

The rate of interest to be borne by the said bonds shall be uniform for all the bonds of the same issue and shall be determined and fixed by the state land settlement finance committee according to the then prevailing market conditions, but shall in no case exceed six per cent per annum, and the determination of said committee as to the rate of interest shall be conclusive as to the then prevailing market conditions. The interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds shall be payable at semiannual intervals, from the date of issuance of said bonds; provided, that the interest coupons first payable may, if the state land settlement finance committee shall so determine and specify, be payable one year after the date of issuance of said bonds.

Sec. 12. All actual and necessary expenses of the state land settlement finance committee and of the members thereof shall be paid out of the land settlement fund, upon approval of the state board of control and on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose, and shall constitute expenses of the state land settlement board.

Sec. 13. The state controller, the state treasurer, and the state land settlement finance committee shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney-general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

Sec. 14. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the fifteenth day of November, 1922, as to all its provisions except those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing, and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 15. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden in the month of November, 1922, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon and in a square thereof, the words: "For the land settlement bond act of 1921," and in the same square under said words the following in brevier type: "This act provides for a bond issue of three million dollars to carry out the purposes of the land settlement act." In the square immediately below the square containing such words, there shall be printed on said ballot the words: "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921" and in the same square immediately below said words "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921" in brevier type shall be printed "This act provides for a bond issue of three million dollars to carry out the purposes of the land settlement act." Opposite the words "For the land settlement bond act of 1921" and "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921," there shall be left spaces in which the voters may place a cross in the manner required by law to indicate whether they vote for or against said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the land settlement bond act of 1921" and those voting against the said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

Sec. 16. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers; and if it appear that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at said election as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinbefore provided, and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof, but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

Sec. 17. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state in accordance with law to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next preceding the general election to be holden in the month of November, 1922; the cost of publication shall be paid out of the general fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose and shall be refunded to the general fund out of the land settlement fund in accordance with this act.

Sec. 18. This act may be known and cited as the "Land settlement bond act of 1921."

Sec. 19. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

The quality of "Red Crown" is always the same, whenever and wherever you buy it. It vaporizes rapidly and uniformly in the carburetor. California Needs Moore

CHARLES C. MOORE

The men and women voters of California, on Tuesday, August 29, will be called upon to make their decision on their next United States Senator. In response to requests from all parts of California, and from men and women representing all interests of the State, at a meeting held in San Francisco, Charles C. Moore, president and builder of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915, consented to become a candidate for the Republican nomination as against the incumbent Senator.

It was felt by representative citizens, Republicans, Progressives and Democrats, that a change was needed at Washington.

Charles C. Moore was selected as a man universally recognized for ability and constructive work, who would best be equipped by training and temperament to represent California in the Senate during the highly important six years ahead when the affairs of the world must undergo sound and right readjustment.

Charles C. Moore is a self-made man, beginning penniless at the age of seventeen. He has achieved success in every endeavor he has entered into. He has built up one of the great engineering businesses of the West, is owner of the largest olive grove in the world near Los Angeles, is a cattle raiser, poultryman, farmer and dairyman.

It was the variety of his interests, coupled with his native ability, that decided the statewide committee to urge him as a man ideally fitted to succeed Senator Johnson at Washington.

Senator Johnson by his own record—or lack of record at Washington—has made it imperative that there be a change. He has been a consistent obstructionist, opposing both the peace policies of the Wilson and Harding administrations and particularly opposing the four power treaty.

He avoided voting on the Esch-Cummins bill, labor's most important document of recent years, and avoided voting on the seating of Senator Newberry. Nor has he seen fit to explain to his California constituents why he avoided those matters of national importance.

Out of a total of 115 bills introduced by him but four became laws and these bills were of a minor nature. This is a record of but one bill passed for each eighteen months that he has been acting as a Senator at Washington.

Out of a total of 1288 roll calls in the Sixty-seventh Congress he is reported absent and not voting 496 times, this being one of the leading records in Congress for absenteeism.

While a United States Senator Hiram Johnson has become merely a mouthpiece for William Randolph Hearst.

He accepted a retainer, through the influence of Hearst, from the New York Tammany organization in the traction cases there; and he accepted a fee of $10,000 to appear for Hearst before the United States Supreme Court in the suit filed by the Associated Press against Hearst's news service to prevent the theft of news.

Credit for California's Tariff Legislation is shared equally by the entire California delegation, Senator Samuel Shortridge in particular having carried the brunt of the almond fight in the Senate, as proved by the Congressional Record, and the eleven Congressmen from this State having each done his full and effective share. Through the aid of the Hearst papers in this State and the Hearst correspondents at Washington it has been made to appear that the fight was carried on "single-handed" by Johnson. This is a deliberate misrepresentation on the eve of an election and a slur on the rest of the delegation from this State.

With scarcely a single exception those Progressives who fathered Johnson's campaigns for Governor in 1910 and 1914 and who supported him for United States Senator in 1916, have been impelled to abandon him and are now supporting Charles C. Moore. This list includes such progressive leaders as Chester Rowell, Marshall Stimson, Marshal Hale, William Kent, Francis J. Heney, Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, and many others of the rank and file of the Progressive party aligned in thought with the leaders of that element.

It is because of all of these things and because of the fact that Senator Johnson has deserted progressive principles for his own personal and selfish interests, that a change is imperative at Washington.

Make this change by voting for CHARLES C. MOORE at the Primary Election, Tuesday, August 29th, and put a genuine, constructive and progressive Republican on the job at Washington

MENLO PARK NEWS

The twenty acres of land on which were located the warehouses at Camp Fremont during the war was sold this week to a Los Angeles capitalist, who is to develop the property and sell it for attractive homes. The sale was made by Mark A. McCann.

It looks now as though Frank P. Roach, the candidate for sheriff, would win at the primary election on August 29. His friends believe he will receive more votes than the two other candidates combined.

John McNally, the well known farmer and pioneer of Menlo Park, passed away at the Mills Memorial Hospital at San Mateo on Wednesday after a lingering illness. Death was caused from an incurable malady which undermined the system of the aged pioneer. Mr. McNally resided here since the later seventies. He was a native of Ireland, aged 76 years. The funeral took place yesterday. Many old friends followed the remains to their last resting place in Holy Cross cemetery. Mr. McNally is survived by a nephew, Robert McNally, and a sister in the east and another living in Australia. He was unmarried.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Derry are spending their vacation at Strawberry Lake in the northern part of the state. That section abounds in the best fishing streams of California.

The fire department was called out on Thursday to stop a blaze at the O'Kane place. Before the flames were brought into subjection a small outhouse was destroyed. The damage was only negligible.

Mrs. Hanse Agard is spending a month with relatives in Los Angeles.

Menlo Parlor, N. S. G. W., will give a dance on August 26. Good music, a good time and what more does the dance goer desire?

Mrs. Adelaide Blanchard and Miss Lorraine Schenkel were given a surprise at the meeting of Menlo Parlor, N. D. G. W., Monday evening. They were called before the president and each given a gold pin for their prompt attendance at the meetings of the parlor. Mrs. Blanchard has not missed a meeting of the parlor in six years. She is one of the oldest Native Daughters of the society. She is the daughter of the late J. Scarpar of Halfmoon Bay, where she spent her girlhood. Her mother's people came to California during the mission era. Mrs. Blanchard often heard her grandmother tell of the early days at Santa Clara mission, having often attended mass in the old church and kneeling with her in worship were the neophytes of the mission. Mrs. Blanchard was quite overcome with emotion in accepting the beautiful token of the parlor.

Monday evening, August 28, in Native Sons' Hall, the members of the Native Daughters' parlor will give a miscellaneous shower to Miss Mildred Morton, residing on Santa Cruz avenue. The young lady is soon to wed Edward Norman of Sonora.

Santa Clara University opened for the fall term this week with a big attendance. Among the new students from this place is Thomas Kearney, young son of Patrick Kearney. The young man graduated from St. Joseph's parochial school last June.

The sum of $250 was realized from the rummage sale held under the auspices of Trinity Episcopal church in the parish hall last week.

Mrs. Harry B. Morey, Sr., Miss Emily Lynch and Carmel O'Keefe left on Thursday for Reno, Nev., to remain for a week. While there they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lynch.

Make no date for August 23. Be sure to attend the card party to be given by the Native Daughters in Native Sons' Hall. Numerous valuable prizes are to be given the winners of the game. The evening will be an enjoyable one. Don't miss it.

Colonel Fredenhall, residing on Laurel avenue, left on Wednesday for Oregon on a brief trip for the government. The colonel is expected back the first of the week.

Mrs. Theresa Windus, formerly Theresa Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Sullivan of Atherton, was united in marriage in San Francisco on August 12 to Charles Louis Hebrank. The pretty and charming bride is well known on the peninsula. She was chief clerk in the First National Bank at Redwood City several years ago, before she became a resident of the metropolis. The young couple has the best wishes of the people of Menlo Park for a long and happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heebner of New York spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Spieker in Menlo Park. The Spiekers gave a luncheon for their guests on Sunday at the Menlo Park Country Club and entertained about a dozen other friends. In the evening they gave a supper party. Mr. and Mrs. Spieker are occupying the Richard Mulcahy house.

Among the young lawyers admitted to practice by the court of appeals last week when Chief Justice Howard W. Taft delivered the address of welcome were Matthew McCullough and his younger brother, Christy McCullough, former residents of Menlo Park. Both young men have been preparing themselves for some time to take the bar examination held a few weeks ago. They both passed creditably. The McCulloughs left here a number of year ago, going to San Francisco, where all the boys have been successful in business. The two girls, Monica and Mary, the latter being a teacher, became nuns some years ago. Monica, who has been in Los Angeles for many years, was recently sent to San Francisco, where she is a teacher in St. Peter's parochial school. The other girl is a teacher in the Notre Dame Academy at San Jose.

McNALLY WILL FILED

The will of John McNally was filed yesterday afternoon by James G. Mason, who is named as the executor. The estate consists of cash, real estate, farming implements and wheat and grain. The value of the estate, the petition alleges, exceeds $10,000. The legatees are Father Daniel O'Kelley of Menlo Park, $250 for masses; Robert McNally, nephew, $500; Mrs. McNally, $150; John P. Cullen, $100; Mrs McKnight, $75; Andrew Matson, an old employe, $150. The rest of the estate is given in equal shares to George McNally, James McNally, Edward McNally and Jane McNally, his brothers and sister, all of whom reside in the County of Tyrone, Ireland. James T. O'Keefe represents the petitioner.

America's First "Zoo."

Independence square in Philadelphia was the site of America's first zoological garden. It was there that Charles Wilson Peale, in 1794, transferred the museum which for a decade previous he had maintained in his home, Third and Lombard streets. The Philosophical society, at Sixth and Chestnut streets, gave him permission to use its building for his large collection of portraits of men of the Revolution. He started the zoological garden in the rear of the building. An eagle was among the living specimens. Above its cage was an inscription: "Feed me well and I will live a hundred years."

Woodside Chirps

The local garage was kept busy on Sunday towing in wrecks and breakdowns. One from King's Mountain and two from La Honda was the day's score.

It is reported that Daniel Jackling is contemplating the purchase of the Henry Holmes place and the P. C. Hale place. These properties adjoin those of Meyerstein and Talbot, respectively, and would serve to square off the Jackling holdings, give him frontage on two main roads and in their variety of hill and creek and redwood grove and oak forest and noble building sites, constitute the finest estate in Woodside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ross, Jr., have started on a three weeks' trip to Crater Lake in Oregon. They are carrying camping equipment on their automobile and plan to make it a regular vacation.

Mrs. R. J. Agnew of San Francisco, with her young son, has been visiting Mrs. A. H. Audiffred at her summer cottage on the highway.

Mrs. Harvey Ross has gone to Santa Babara for a month. Her son, Alexander, will return in a few days to his school in Honolulu.

San Carlos Items

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott have moved into their new home in the Hillsdale district near Dr. J. G. Null, which they recently purchased from Mr. McGettigan of Redwood City. The Scotts left their futrniture in storage in San Francisco while they were trying out the San Carlos climate and deciding upon buying a home and locating here permanently. They lived in one of the Powers apartments several months previous to buying their home. They were very well pleased to find that the glowing reports of the superior climate of San Carlos was no fable.

During the absence of the rest of the folks at Santa Barbara and Los Angeles Ambrose McCarthy is enjoying himself among the flappers in Pacific Grove and vicinity.

As soon as conditions in connection with the railroad strike are sufficiently settled to assure a continuous passage without indefinite delays, Mrs. J. J. Mitchell and Master Jimmy, Jr., will leave for Davenport, Iowa, where Papa Mitchell is a student in chiropractic.

O. D. Fairfield and family have moved down from San Francisco and have taken rooms at the Powers apartments in order to be near and watch the progress of their new bungalow which is being built on Chestnut street by our popular contractor and builder, Ben Zimmerman. Mr. Fairfield's property adjoins that of Andrew Johnson, whose new bungalow is nearing completion.

Our popular undersheriff, H. W. Lampkin, was here last week meeting his many friends and mailing out literature telling us all about how to run a sheriff's office.

Walter Towers, 72, who has retired from active business affairs, and Mrs. Towers, who carries her 72 years with the same youthful spirit as does Papa Towers, have journeyed all the way from Newark, N. J., to escape the humidity of the oppressive eastern climate and for a visit with their two sons, John Towers of San Carlos and Walter Towers, Jr., of Palo Alto. Walter Towers, Jr., put over a big surprise on his Brother John of this place in connection with their parents' visit to California. John was not let in on it until with Brother Walter they met their father and mother at the ferry in San Francisco last Saturday.

Miss Ida Johnason is over from Oakland for a visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. O. C. Larson, on Walnut street.

Mrs. M. T. McCarthy and her two daughters, Misses' Celesta and Reta, have just returned from a two weeks' visit at Santa Barbara and Los Angeles and its delightful suburbs and are most enthusiastic in their praise of the many interesting features connected with a visit to Catalina Island and the vicinity near the Angel City.

Now that George Peterson has pitched his tent on his vacant lot near D. E. Schooley and taken up his residence in San Carlos, we have the pleasing distinction of having all of Redwood City's jewelers as residents of San Carlos. But only one running for office. Don't know how soon Pete may announce himself as a candidate for mayor.

Young Gramma Quinn hasn't perceptibly aged any since the arrival of the latest grandson, Louis Fred Zimmerman, at Redwood City.

After several months of tour taking in various countries of the old world, Mrs. Dr. Douglas E. Wiel is back at her home in the White Oaks tract. The particular reason for Mrs. Wiel's trip across the waters was to place her son, Theodore, in a Swiss college, where he will remain until his graduation. Young Wiel spent one year at Stanford before going abroad to complete his education.

FRANK ROACH THE MAN

Because we who are neighbors of Frank Roach, candidate for Sheriff of San Mateo County, want the voters of the county to know him as we do, we are presenting the following brief statement of his life, qualifications and plans to the people of his county:

FRANK ROACH was born in Menlo Park about forty-five years ago. His parents were among the pioneers in the development of San Mateo County and his father was one of the early leaders in educational work here.

FRANK ROACH was educated in the schools of this county and has spent his entire life here. How well that life has been spent and how useful a citizen he has been is known to us, his neighbors, and should be known to every voter.

FRANK ROACH became an orphan when he was 18 years old. The oldest of a family of six children, he was charged with the responsibility of raising and educating his five sisters and brothers. Bravely and fearlessly he worked to accomplish this end and the splendid manner in which he fulfilled his trust is an inspiration to us of Menlo Park.

FRANK ROACH is a man of the highest character. His honesty and integrity are beyond question. His generous nature, his fearlessness in the face of hardship or danger, his coolness of judgment and his constant desire to put his best into the task that confronts him have endeared him to the people of his home community and to all who know him.

THE FRANK ROACH FOR SHERIFF CLUB was formed, not at his solicitation, but was organized by the neighbors of Frank Roach because of the high regard in which they hold him and their belief that he is admirably qualified in every way to give San Mateo County a sheriff's office of which it can be proud.

FRANK ROACH, if elected to the office of sheriff of your county, will devote his entire time, energy and ability to fulfilling the important duties of that office. He knows every corner of San Mateo County and possesses the necessary physical and mental qualifications to properly perform the duties of your sheriff.

FRANK ROACH believes that the office of sheriff should be always at the service of the people and, if elected, plans to maintain a night and day service in the office so that an instant response can be given to any call received at any hour of the night or day. He will appoint men of the highest qualifications as his deputies and assistants in the office and endeavor to make the office a live, vital force in the county for the administration of justice.

It is because we who know FRANK ROACH believe implicitly in his ability and desire to accomplish these ends that we present this statement to the voters of our county and respectfully ask their support of Frank Roach for Sheriff.

Frank Roach for Sheriff Club

BIG NEW FEATURES ADDED TO COLOSSUS

Made even more tremendous than in 1921 by the recent addition of many more trained wild animal displays and the purchase of Europe's biggest horse show, Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey combined will be exhibited in San Jose, September 4.

All who glance over the cable news or who read the magazines must have noted the many contracts entered into by the Ringling Brothers for foreign talent last winter. A special ship was chartered this spring to bring the hundreds of human performers, trained animal acts and equine displays to America. More than a million persons saw the mammoth new circus in 1922 during the weeks that it exhibited in Madison Square Garden, New York. Now this marvelous exhibition is touring the country abroad in five great railroad trains. It is a third bigger than the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey show of last season. It is ten times larger than any other circus now on tour.

Big as this wonder circus of 1922—with its more than twenty trained wild-animal displays in steel arenas, fully 150 wonderfully schooled trick horses, 700 men and women performers, 100 clowns, and scores of features—the price of admission is no more than before. And though the trained animal numbers and the immense horse show were circuses in themselves while touring Europe, they are not offered as separate attractions by the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey combined shows. Instead, all are on one gigantic program. Every thing is in one mammoth main tent. One ticket admits to all and includes admission to the tremendous double menagerie. There are more than a thousand animals in the zoo of this circus and these include a tiny baby hippotamus, only recently born, and accompanied by its three-ton mother. Another remarkable zoological feature is an armoured rhinoceros, the only one known to exist and for which the Ringlings recently refused an offer of $30,000.

JUDGES AWARD PRIZES

The judges in the big contest conducted by the San Francisco Chronicle to determine the best solution of the peninsula traffic questions have named the winners and according to an announcement the prizes have been awarded as follows: J. C. Gard, San Mateo, first prize of $25; C. A. Pistolesi, San Francisco, second prize of $15; Howard Livingston, San Francisco, third prize of $10.

The judges in the contest were District Attorney Franklin Swart of San Mateo County, Supervisor Richard J. Welch of San Francisco and President Frank K. Towne of Redwood City, president of the Peninsula Bureau of Chambers of Commerce and Civic Organizations.

Woodside Chirps

When Dr. Tripp first came to Woodside, as I mentioned before, it was on account of his health and he came as the guest of two men who had been with him in his trip across Mexico—Parkhurst and Ellis. Some Spaniards had a vegetable garden on what is now the Whitteli place and had raised onions and tomatoes. The crop had been harvested, the onions bringing 75 cents per pound. What the tomatoes sold for I do not know. But there were some culls remaining on the ground and Messrs. Parkhurst and Ellis and their guest, Tripp, were given the privilege of helping themselves. Dr. Tripp particularly availed himself of this opportunity and the addition of these fresh vegetables to his diet worked wonders with his health, so that after three weeks he found himself strong enough for long rambles in the hills.

About this time there came a quarrel between Parkhurst and Ellis, the very echoes of which move us to this day. For it appears that Ellis was partial to a fluid, to the present day unknown, called 100 proof. To fortify himself against any possible prohibition laws Ellis purchased this fluid not in a bottle but by the barrel. This barrel he hid under his cabin, only in those days it was not called a cellar. Ellis was so proud of his purchase and became so fond of visiting it in its hiding place that the lumber business suffered, and Parkhurst undertook to solve the difficulty once and for all by removing the bung from the barrel and allowing the precious fluid to seep into the thirsty hillside. Whereupon Ellis waxed wroth and avowed that he would be hanged, or words to that effect, if he would work any longer with a man who would treat his partner in that scurvy fashion. So he pulled up stakes, shouldered his bed and walked a mile to the south of what is now the Folger place and set up for himself in the business of splitting shakes.

Thus it happened that Parkhurst tendered the vacant partnership to Dr. Tripp, and so was a doctor of dentistry changed into a lumberman and a merchant.

At this time the lumber was all turned out by hand, but already a sawmill was under construction on the place now owned by J. A. Hooper. This was the first of the mills, but soon a second was built on property now belonging to James Huddart. Here the canyon was dammed and there are those in Woodside who remember the great wheel turned by the water from the spillway. Soon three more mills were completed, so that one could stand at the old Tripp place and hear the noise of five several mills cutting through the logs snaked to them from the mountainside.

The lumber business of Parkhurst & Tripp prospered and as they had many men in their employ and were provident men, they laid in a goodly supply of provisions in an extra cabin built adjoining the house. The news of this stock of provisions, so near at hand, went abroad and many came to borrow and some to beg and some to buy. Since none of these requests could be refused in those days of mutual helpfulness and as the scattered population was rapidly growing into a community, the idea came to these two men to open a store. This they did and so was set the first seal upon the community life of Woodside.

INJURED BY AUTO TRUCK

A heavily loaded truck was responsible for the injury of E. J. Higgins, C. P. Barsotti and William Ehern, all of San Francisco last Monday when the machine in which the three men were riding crashed into it. The accident occurred on the state highway near Daly City. They were taken to the Central Emergency hospital in San Francisco. They say that the truck was not equipped with tail lights.

BATTERY PASSES REDWOOD

A special combined battery train composed of three searchlight cars, two 75 mm. antiaircraft machine guns, specia lradio telephone and a radio broadcasting, sending and receiving set, passed through Redwood City last week on its way to Del Monte from Fort Scott.

The train was under the command of Captain C. G. Foltz.

MARTIN WALSH ASKS FOR RE-ELECTION ON TUESDAY

Martin Walsh is making his bid for re-election at the coming primary August 29. Mr. Walsh, being an official for many years as constable is well known and very popular among the people of the third township. To remove all doubts in the minds of the many new voters in this section it is only necessary to consult any of the old time voters as to the standing and character of this first-grade peace officer.

Permanently Removing Spots by the F. Thomas Process

If spots come back after your clothes have been to the cleaners, cleaned by the "F. Thomas Process."

Spots that appear in clothing caused by grease, food stains, etc., quickly collect dust and dirt. They can be permanently removed by the "F. Thomas Process" without injury to the fabric.

The "F. Thomas Process" is a highly developed, scientific method of cleaning by which we obtain the perfect work for which this establishment is noted.

The cheap, "just as good" cleaner either washes your clothes in dirty gasoline, or scours his gasoline with strong sulphuric acid. It is dangerous to have your clothes cleaned in "acid" gasoline. It is economy in the long run to have your clothes they haven't been thoroughly cleaned.

Every drop of cleaning fluid that we use is carefully re-distilled in our plant. Special equipment that we have installed to properly handle this work represents an investment of thousands of dollars.

MILLAN A GOOD OFFICIAL

Jack T. Millan—at present treasurer and tax collector of San Diego and a candidate for state treasurer is conducting one of the most unusual campaigns in the history of state politics.

In a specially built auto which permits him to ride in comfort, Millan, a partially disabled ex-serviceman, is compelled to use crutches, has traveled over 12,000 miles and has personally canvassed every county in the state but six.

Credited with a brilliant record as the financial head of the municipal government at San Diego—and with the saving of hundreds of thousands of dollars to the taxpayers—Millan is submitting his candidacy to the voters entirely upon his achievements as an experienced and successful financier. In speaking of his candidacy recently C. G. Sellec, a prominent southern California official had this to say about Millan:

"The people of California cannot afford to experiment with as vital and significant position as the office of state treasurer. And with all due respect to his opponents, Mr. Millan is the only candidate aspiring for this office who has had any practical, successful financial experience. As treasurer and tax collector of San Diego he has handled millions; and at the last general election, as the result of his splendid accomplishments, Millan was unanimously re-elected to his present position. And no finer recommendation could be asked than the unanimous approval of a community in which a public official has lived, served and made his reputation. Jack T. Millan is clean, able and deserving. As a public official he has made good—and merits promotion."

A GOOD PIECE OF NEWS

Most of our patrons are already familiar with the practical work along domestic science lines of Elois H. MacMillan, well known in California as a leader in her particular work. The Sunshine Stores have required her services for an indefinite period and she is here to serve you in the capacity of food information bureau. Years of experience and training have made her exceptionally able to help you solve your household and cooking problems, to aid you in buying more economically and to introduce you to new and delightful foods and how to prepare them. Do not fai lto make her acquaintance and to avail yourselves of her generous services.

MET TWENTY YEARS AGO WED LAST FRIDAY

Last Friday evening Joseph Wise met his fiancee, Mrs. E. F. Milton of Salida, Colo., at the depot and a hurried wedding took place almost immediately.

Preparations had been carefully made by Mr. Wise, and Miss Bullivant, of the county clerk's office, issued the license, Rev. S. C. Thomas of the Methodist church, having been called from San Francisco, made the happy couple man and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Wise first met some 20 years ago in Kansas, lately a correspondence sprung up which culminated in the happy romance.

Mrs. Wise intends to visit her son in Los Angeles on their wedding trip, later they will make their home in Redwood City where Mr. Wise has resided for some time past.

HUNTER IS INJURED

Arthur Timbler, resident of Redwood City, is at his home suffering from a badly bruised and sprained left foot, as a result of his horse falling on him when it became entangled in a wire fence on Kings Mountain last week.

Timbler, accompanied by Albert Mansfield, Arnold Hess, Ralph Peterson and Sam Harvey, were on a deer hunting expedition. On a hillside, two of the horses ran into the wire fence, one being badly cut. Timbler's foot was caught under his horse and he was unable to extricate himself until help arrived.

A LYN-O-TYPE OR TWO FOR A CANDIDATE

Joe's an old timer around these parts
Known to be honest from crown to toe,
So be up and doing, when election day starts,
Round up the crowd, folks, and vote for Joe.

He isn't young or handsome,
With eyes of lovely blue,
But he is just an'l he is honest
And that counts with old and new.

Remember, all you ladies,
For I know you'll find it so,
Then doll up for the election,
Come on out and vote for Joe.

You all have good intentions
Stowed away beneath your hat,
Elect Joe for the nomination,
But don't throw away your bat.

The name you will remember,
And the office he will seek—
Jos. B. Feliz. Got his number?
Well! Don't forget next week.
Yours truly,
JOS. B. FELIZ.

OPEN SKYLINE BOULEVARD BIDS

Early completion of the Skyline boulevard is the aim of the state highway commission, and following a meeting of the board at Sacramento Monday at which deeds from the Spring Valley Water Company for rights of way were accepted, it was announced that bids for the grading on the second unit will be called for within the next ten days.

At the same time it was announced that immediate work would result from the permission granted by the United States government to extend the boulevard through Fort Funston.

BAG TWO FINE BUCKS

A party consisting of District Attorney Franklin Swart, John McBain and D .P. Flynn, returned to Redwood City Saturday night after hunting two days in Santa Clara county, with two bucks. Swart and Flynn were the men who bagged the deer, the former getting a four pointed buck and the latter a forked horn.

FIRST COMMITMENT MADE UNDER NEW LAW

The first time that the law providing for the commitment of women to a state industrial farm has been invoked in San Mateo county resulted in a resident of Redwood City being ordered confined in the state farm at Napa for a term of not less than six months or more than five years, following a hearing before Judge Buck on Tuesday.

District Attorney Franklin Swart prepared the complaint in the case, which alleged that the woman is a confirmed drunkard. Testimony was introduced substantiating the charge and commitment was ordered.

AUTHORITY TO INVEST FUNDS

Peirce Coombs, executor of the estate of John H. Nightingale, Tuesday was granted authority by Judge Buck to make an investment of the funds of the etsate. Nightingale died several months ago in Redwood City and the estate is now in process of administration.

$18,000 IS APPORTIONED TO SHAREHOLDERS

Series No. 74 of the San Mateo County Building and Loan Association stock reached its matured value of $200 per share on August 21, when the sum of $18,400 was paid to the shareholders in said series, being the accumulation of the monthly dues paid in with compound interest earned thereon.

A new series, No. 120, will be opened on September 1, affording an opportunity for investors to participate in this safe and profitable form of investment. The money derived from investors is loaned on approved real estate security, and largely for the construction of new homes, thus aiding in building up the community.

Information regarding the investments and loans will be cheerfully furnished at the office of the association, 90 Broadway, Redwood City.

LETTER FROM J. W. WEINBERG

J. W. Weinberg, who left here a short time ago to enter the Pythian Home at Ogdensburg, New York, writes a letter to the editor as follows:

Dear Sir:—As you are doubtless aware, I am at present located at this home. It is a delightful place, on the banks of the St. Lawrence river, and gives an extensive view of the Canadian shore on the opposite side. The home is a substantial stone building, surrounded with beautiful lawns and flower gardens. Each room is furnished in excellent taste with hot and cold running water and everything is kept emaculately neat and clean. We have three good meals a day and no unreasonable restrictions. There is a farm of 142 acres, worked by hired help and furnishes an abundanct supply of many varieties of vegetables, with a surplus for the market.

A. M. FREE PRESIDES

Congressman A. M. Free of this district enjoyed the unexpected and pleasurable experience of being called upon to preside over the House. This is a privilege that seldom comes to a member in his first term. Speaker Gillette was desirous of attending a conference with some of the members of the House and called Mr. Free to the chair to preside during his absence.

Mr. Free has announced that he will probably not return to California until the first of October. His district is vitally interested in the tariff bill, which should go to conference in a few days, and he feels that he should remain on the job until those things in his district which require protection are given due consideration.

Although Mr. Free has no opposition in the election he intends to cover his entire district, hold meetings in each locality and discuss with the residents the various problems in which they are interested, in order that he may thoroughly prepare to represent the interests of his district at the next session, which will convene on the first Monday in December.

Mr. Free's district is probably more interested in the tariff than any other district in the United States, as without a tariff it would be practically impossible for the farmers and miners to produce beans lemons, almonds, walnuts, mustard, olives, quicksilver, etc., in competition with the cheap labor of Europe.
